

FORT WAYNE BUS TRIP

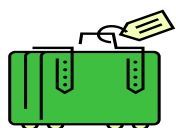

THREE DAY GENEALOGICAL BUS TRIP
ALLEN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY
FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

Monday June 09, 2008 through Wednesday June 11, 2008

Sponsored by Tazewell County Genealogical and Historical Society of Pekin Illinois

The Genealogy Department at the Allen County Public Library is considered one of the top genealogy research libraries in the United States. It is the largest in the Midwest. Anyone researching family genealogy will find this library a must see.

Package includes round trip bus to Fort Wayne, Indiana for three days and two nights with pick-up sites in Pekin and Bloomington, a room at the Don Hall Guesthouse Hotel in Fort Wayne, money saving coupons for meals at the hotel's in-house restaurant, a dinner at the Beef House restaurant in Covington, Indiana on the return trip, plus our own personal professional researcher available for our group while at the library. Come join our magical history tour! Lots of fun on the bus! Bring a friend. Share the fun!
