Registration 8:00 a.m. – 9:00 a.m.

Coffee, donuts and lunch included.

Tazewell County Genealogical & Historical Society

719 N. Eleventh St.,

Pekin, IL 91554

Speaker: Katherine R. Willson

Katherine R. Willson is a professional genealogist from Ann Arbor, Michigan. She has made presentations at many local, regional, and national genealogical conferences as well as taught many beginning, intermediate, and advanced genealogical classes. She has authored The Genealogist's Guide to Grand Rapids, Michigan as well as compiling a list of links to over 12,000 genealogical Facebook pages and to over 100 genealogical instruction YouTube video channels.

TOPICS:

- They Didn't All Come through Ellis Island! – learn about other ports of European departures and U.S. arrivals.
- Finding Archived Newspaper Articles About Your Ancestors – Learn where to find free archived digital news articles from the past, as well as comparisons of paid subscription sites for accessing archived digital news articles.
- Records of New York City's Emigrant Savings Bank – In 1850, officers of New York City's Irish Emigrant Society founded the Emigrant Savings Bank as a safe place for Irish and other immigrants to keep their money. Discuss records that are available for the bank's customers.
- Resources for Genealogical Research in Foreign Countries – Once you've discovered your immigrant ancestor's home country, how do you go about finding documents generated while s/he was still there, and how will you research his/her parents?
